

MEASURE “P” REBUTTAL TO THE ARGUMENT AGAINST

DON'T LET OPPONENTS OF MEASURE P FOOL YOU.

The opponents' real agenda is to defeat term limits. They prefer the existing system that allows career politicians to serve for life.

They know term limits will limit the control they and other special interests try to exert over the County Board of Supervisors.

Measure P will promote the election of citizen politicians who aren't beholden to the special interests for their continued employment.

That's why special interests have spent millions of dollars to block term limits across California.

Instead of honestly defending their special interest political agenda, opponents of Measure P are trying to divert your attention, raising the “red herring” issue of salary increases.

What they don't tell you is that San Bernardino County Supervisors' salaries are currently set according to a method that is almost two decades old!

Measure P simply brings San Bernardino County Supervisors' pay in line with other Southern California counties that are benchmarked to a salary set by the state.

Measure P establishes an independent, objective salary formula and keeps politicians from setting their own salaries.
